

Blue Monday was January 25th!

Social scientists say that the fourth Monday in January is the most depressing day of the year. Holiday debt, weather, shorter days—it all adds up on that day. Does every day feel like “Blue Monday” to you? If so, you may benefit from depression screening and recommendations for treatment. Contact your EAP to learn more.

